

Last updated June 2016

International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society

Responsibilities of a Web Editorial Board Member

(As set forth by the Co-Medical Web Editors)

I. Primary Responsibilities

- Serve as the primary liaison for the Task Force/Committee/Section/Special Interest Group that you represent
- Provide news and updates to the Editors when appropriate, e.g. a new course, position paper, news item, etc.

II. Other Responsibilities

- Be familiar with the MDS website to provide constructive feedback for improvements
- Offer innovative ideas to engage members/non-members

III. Active Participation in the Following Meetings and Activities

- Web Editorial Board Teleconferences as needed
- In-person meeting at the annual International Congress
- Testing of new interactive tools as needed
- Participation in MDS-sponsored online surveys/polls as needed
- Like the MDS group on Facebook and/or follow MDS on Twitter (Handle: @movedisorder)

For more information, contact Website Manager at hfriedrichs@movementdisorders.org