

Evidence Based Medicine Course - Treatments for Parkinson's Disease

Evidence Based Medicine Course Treatments for Parkinson's Disease – The Applications of the Principles of EBM to Clinical Practice

June 21, 2019
8:45-9:00	Welcome from course directors
First Session
9:00-10:00	Principles and methods of Evidence Based Medicine
	Parkinson's disease – motor symptoms
	Parkinson's disease – non-motor symptoms
10:00-10:30	Coffee Break
Second Session
10:30-11:00	Treatments for preventing / delaying disease progression - evidence
11:00-11:30	Treatments for motor symptoms in early and stable PD – evidence
11:30-12:00	Treatments for motor complications and non-dopaminergic motor symptoms – evidence
12:00-12:30	Non-pharmacological treatments including DBS and exercise - evidence
12:30-13:15	Lunch
Third Session
13:15-13:45	Treatments for non-motor symptoms: autonomic and sensory - evidence
13:45-14:15	Treatments for non-motor symptoms: neuropsychiatric - evidence
14:15-15:45	Breakout sessions – case discussions All faculty
15:45-16:15	Coffee Break
16:15-17:45	Breakout sessions – case discussions All faculty
17:45-18:00	Reconvene, summary, closing remarks Course directors, faculty