Flights into Vienna
If you are flying, the best way to reach Brno, Czech Republic is by traveling into the Vienna International Airport (VIE) in Vienna, Austria and taking the train into Brno, Czech Republic.

Travel from Vienna Airport to Vienna Main Station (Wien Hbf):
From the Vienna Airport, travel to the Vienna Main Station (Wien Hbf). This takes about 15 minutes and can be done using the OBB Railjet (www.wien.info/en/travel-info/to-and-around/airport-to-center/intercityexpress).

The train from Vienna Airport to Vienna Main station (Wien Hbf) departs daily from the Vienna Airport. Trains depart every 30 minutes from 06:33 – 23:03. For detailed timetable information, please visit the website at www.oebb.at.

Travel from Vienna Main Station (Wien Hbf) to Brno (Brno dolní nádraží):
From Vienna Main Station (Wien Hbf), you will travel to Brno dolní nádraží station. Train from Vienna to Brno operates frequently – typically every hour. The journey takes about 90 minutes.

Tickets are available at the station ticket counter for this journey and cost approximately €12 each way.

Advance/Online Tickets:

Train - rj, R, EC - České dráhy

Bus - Leo express

Event Location: St. Anne University Hospital, School of Medicine, Masaryk University
The course will take place at St. Anne University Hospital, School of Medicine, Masaryk University, in Building C1, 6th Floor: Red Conference Room. Below please find a map to assist you in finding Building C1.
From building C1, there will be signs directing you to the 6th Floor Red Conference Room.