

International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society

MDS Membership Marketing Talking Points

Who we are:

The International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society (MDS) is a professional society of more than 11,000 clinicians, scientists and other healthcare professionals dedicated to improving the care of patients with movement disorders through education and research.

Why should you become a member?

Membership provides access to peer-reviewed Journals, Rating Scales trainings, online educational resources, including CME opportunities, and a vast video library with patient cases, among many other benefits. MDS members also qualify for reduced registration rates at International and Regional Congresses, and for regional courses. MDS courses focus on topics including deep brain stimulation, evidence-based medicine, allied health team training and more.

Membership categories include:

- Regular - clinicians, researchers, and policy makers
- Junior - residents, fellows, and those in training
- Health Professional (Non-Physician) - nurses, physical/physiotherapists, dieticians
- Student - medical and undergraduate students in medicine and science
- Retiree - for those retired from a profession in the field
- Associate - one-year trial program

Contact the International Secretariat:

The staff at the MDS International Secretariat office is happy to help. Please contact by email membership@movementdisorders.org or by phone at +1 (414) 276-2145 with any questions.
